Refund Requests- after the start date of program

Great Plains College does not provide refunds to students after the start date of the program.

PLEASE NOTE: Where approved, Great Plains College will provide financial credit for future use. This credit will be available to the student for one academic year only.

Process for requesting financial credit for situations that include, but are not limited to, medical, reduced course loads and failing a pre-requisite is:

- International students requesting refunds for any post-secondary course or program must submit a “Great Plains College Refund Request Form” along with any applicable supporting documentation to their respective Student Adviser
- Student Adviser will provide the form to Manager of Admissions and Student Services for determining their status with Great Plains College and eligibility for any credit to be extended with Great Plains College.
- Reducing course load:
 - No financial credit is available for reduction of course loads within the first semester
 - Tuition Credit for individual courses (reduced course load) in the second semester of a program year will be granted if notification of withdrawal from these courses is received before October 31 for Fall intake or February 28 for winter intake.
- Not successfully completing prerequisite course(s):
 - When a prerequisite course is not successfully completed the student will be offered a tuition credit on the subsequent course(s) requiring the prerequisite.
 - This does not apply to students who are discontinued from their program

- Students whose eligibility for a tuition credit is approved will be provided a tuition credit less $250 administrative fee per course (to a maximum of $500) to use for the subsequent academic year only. No fees will be applied to the credit.
- Any remaining amounts owing for the subsequent academic year are the responsibility of the student to pay in full before they are eligible to resume accessing programming.
- Student will receive notice of eligibility of tuition credit request, within 10 business days of receipt of request form and supporting documentation.

Refund Payments:

- In the case of Flywire payments, the refund MUST be issued back through Flywire and accepted by the payer.
- In the case of a credit card payment, the refund MUST be issued to the original credit card provided for payment.
- In the case of a debit card payment, the refund MUST be issued to the original debit card provided for payment. If the original debit card cannot be presented in person for the refund, a cheque will be issued payable in the name of the student (no refunds will be issued in the name of the original debit card holder if it was not the student's debit card).
- Any deviations from the preceding must be approved by the Accounting Manager and will only be considered after all other efforts have been exhausted and it has been deemed impossible to refund to the original payment method. When this occurs, another form of refund may be considered however a $100 administrative fee will be charged plus any additional third-party fees required for the transaction.

Discontinued Students:

- If you are discontinued, there are no refunds available including for future paid semesters of their program.

Late Study Permit Student Options

For students whose study permit is approved after the start date of the program, options that will be provided include the following:

1. Defer application to next available intake at Great Plains College. All tuition and fees are transferred to future intake.
